

מרכז מינרבה לזכויות האדם
The Minerva Center for Human Rights
مركز مينيرفا لحقوق الإنسان

Faculty of Law,
The Hebrew University of Jerusalem

The Faculty of Law and the Minerva Center for Human Rights at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem are happy to announce scholarships for Arab students - supported by the Fried-Gal Initiative for Transitional Justice

Scholarships for Arab students

for study and activity in the field of transitional justice in the Faculty of Law

Scholarships in the amount of up to 4,000 Shekels each will be awarded annually on the basis of the following combined criteria:

- Study and activity in the Faculty of Law 's Transitional Justice Program
- Academic excellence
- Community involvement

The scholarships are intended both for students who have already participated in academic activities in the Faculty of Law's Transitional Justice Program – and for students who plan to participate in such activities.

The scholarships are intended for students from all faculties and departments in the Hebrew University.

Deadline for submission of applications: 4 March 2013

The application should be submitted to the Minerva Center for Human Rights – in hardcopy to Mailbox no. 7 in the Faculty of Law, or by email to: mchr@savion.huji.ac.il

The application should include:

- A letter explaining the candidate's qualifications
- University grades
- CV
- No more than two letters of recommendation (not required)

For further details please contact the Minerva Center for Human Rights at 02-5881156.